Property Description

Imagine yourself relaxing by the pool or on your own large second story deck above the jungle looking out over the Pacific Ocean. Casa Libertad is a recent Salagnac Arquitectos design by Lucca Spendlingwimmer who has recently built his own personal home in the Bosque Verde neighborhood. The home is set up for the current owners to home school their four children in the school room you see in the photography. The master sweet is upstairs and boosts a huge outdoor "adult" patio that stretches out the extent of the L - Shape of the home with views of the San Juan Mountains to the east and the Pacific Ocean to the west. The well appointed kitchen is open to the expansive outdoor space with a large infinity edged pool for entertaining. The yard is large and flat on the top terrace and extends to the south in to the jungle below with an incredible amount of buffer and privacy from your neighbors.
