Property Description

Nestled in the heart of Costa Rica's pristine natural beauty, this extraordinary 54-acre (22-hectare) property offers unparalleled privacy, tranquility, and connection with the land. Ideal for a wellness retreat, eco-resort, or private development, the estate boasts over 20 prime buildable sites scattered across diverse terrains, including lush jungle, open meadows, and panoramic ridges that overlook the Diamante Valley and the Pacific Ocean. A network of private trails winds through the untouched forest, offering easy access to the stunning natural features of the property, including four private waterfalls and five natural pools. The land is bordered by two rivers, each with its own breathtaking waterfall, accessible by private trails. The height of the property ensures that the rivers are a calming presence, offering easy access to nature's wonders while maintaining complete privacy.
