Property Description

*SELLER ACCEPTS CRYPTO*Set in the Hills of Escaleras, just minutes above Playa Dominical, this estate captures the perfect blend of privacy, design, and lifestyle that defines the best of Costa Rica's southern Pacific zone. The property rests on a rare parcel that opens toward the ocean, welcomes constant wildlife movement, and takes in sunset colors that settle across the water each evening. It feels secluded, yet never isolated. The principal residence is a four bedroom luxury home built by one of Costa Rica's most trusted national builders. The owner and architect shaped the design with a clear goal: to bring the landscape into every moment of daily life. The main living room rises to a vaulted ceiling that reaches roughly twenty seven feet, which amplifies the light, the air, and the sense of space. High ceilings, clean lines, and wide openings are all placed to draw your eye toward the Pacific or into the canopy where monkeys, toucans, and butterflies move from branch to branch.
