Property Description

Tucked in the lush rainforest of Manuel Antonio, this enchanting property blends natural beauty with stylish comfort. Surrounded by vibrant ornamental gardens and mature native foliage, the home offers privacy, tranquility, and seamless indoor-outdoor living. The main house spans two levels, featuring an open-concept kitchen, living area, and a guest half bath on the entry level. Upstairs, two spacious en-suite bedrooms open onto a private terrace that overlooks the kidney-shaped pool and manicured grounds. Just off the main living area is a covered terrace with a full dining set—perfect for enjoying the tropical breeze. The inviting pool is complemented by a generous sun patio and faces the detached guest house, which is connected by a charming walkway. The guest house includes its own terrace, a cozy bedroom, and a full bath—ideal for visitors or added rental flexibility. Recently remodeled and expanded, the home combines contemporary design with natural elements, creating a stylish, harmonious ambiance that fits beautifully into the surrounding landscape.
