Property Description

This coffee estate in Alajuela is a paradise in the mountains that combines luxury, tranquility, and close contact with nature. Located at an altitude of 1,400 meters above sea level, this impressive property offers panoramic views that span from sunrises over the Irazú and Barva volcanoes to majestic sunsets over the mountain ranges. The night sky in San José and Alajuela forms a dazzling urban light show, complemented by the estate's proximity to Juan Santamaría International Airport, just 15 minutes away.

A Natural Retreat with Ample Amenities

This coffee estate in Alajuela includes a meticulously maintained coffee plantation, allowing you to enjoy high-altitude gourmet coffee straight from the property. It also features an organic orchard, vineyard, fruit trees, wild blackberry fields, and lush gardens inviting you to unwind.

Among its many structures are:

Main House: Designed by a prestigious local architectural firm, boasting high-end finishes, coffered ceilings, and terraces with uninterrupted views.
