Property Description

This charming Spanish-style courtyard estate is a rare offering in the heart of Manuel Antonio, blending privacy, lush jungle surroundings, and exceptional walkability. The property features a 3-bedroom main residence centered around a vibrant tropical garden and resort-style pool, along with a separate 2-bedroom poolside villa—perfect for guests, extended family, or rental income. The pool serves as the true heart of the property, creating a tranquil oasis where daily visits from monkeys, sloths, and tropical birds make it feel as though you're living within a national park. Despite this immersive natural setting, the location is unmatched: El Mercadito Gastronomic Market is just 650 meters away, while the nearest supermarket and restaurant are only a 150-meter walk. Set within a secluded, jungle-rich neighborhood with few nearby homes, the property offers a rare sense of privacy. Three gated parking spaces provide direct access to the pool and courtyard, creating a seamless indoor-outdoor flow throughout the estate.
