Property Description

Turn key and fully renovated, this Pueblo del Mar unit puts you right in the heart of Tamarindo with everything dialed in and ready to go. Clean, modern interior with high ceilings, great natural light, and a functional open layout that works equally well for personal use or short-term rentals. The space is styled right, comes fully furnished, and needs nothing. Walk in, drop your bags and start generating income immediately. Set in one of Tamarindo's most walkable pockets, you're minutes to the beach, restaurants, and shops, while still tucked into a quiet, tropical setting. The bright exterior, lush greenery, and charming courtyard give it that classic coastal feel renters look for, while the interior delivers the comfort and finish that converts bookings. If you're looking for a proven, low-friction rental play or an easy Costa Rica base, this is it. Reach out now to get full numbers, availability, and lock this down before it's gone.
