Property Description

This Hidden Jewel is unlike any other opportunity in Manuel Antonio. Hidden behind beautifully maintained hedges and within impeccable landscaping are four lovely buildings with a total of 5 separate apartments, a pool, and complete tranquility. Every structure is set apart enough to create a feeling of restful privacy. The first building has 2 bedrooms, 1 bath, a large L-shaped open concept living/dining/kitchen that opens onto a very comfortable porch kept comfortable with the shade of the lovely tropical trees. High ceilings made of wood help to dispel the heat, in the traditional style of Costa Rican homes. The bathroom is ample and well-appointed. As a bonus, there is ample storage and half bathroom situated adjacent to the apartment with access via the porch that could easily be transformed into an additional studio apartment. As you progress up a gentle incline you encounter first a two-story building and then another one-story building housing three identical 1 bedroom self-sufficient suites.
