Property Description

Welcome to this investment opportunity in Tamarindo, Costa Rica—a vibrant beach town known for its stunning coastline and bustling atmosphere. Situated in the heart of this popular tourist destination, this thriving food court offers a unique chance to own a highly profitable business in a prime location. The food court features a total of nine income-producing stands, each offering a diverse culinary experience to cater to the varied tastes of locals and visitors alike. Complementing the dining experience, there is a fully equipped bar. Adding to the allure of this business, a climbing wall is incorporated within the food court, providing an exciting and unique activity for visitors of all ages. This adventurous feature not only attracts customers but also offers an additional source of revenue. Furthermore, on Sundays, the food court transforms into a lively night market. The night market showcases local artisans, vendors, and entertainers, creating a captivating atmosphere for people to explore and enjoy.
