Property Description

The home is just minutes to the hospital in Ciudad Cortez as well as groceries and fuel. For your day-to-day services, you need only drive a little further south to encounter Palmar Norte, home to all manner of services including fuel, groceries, banks, restaurants, and more. Drive another 5 minutes to the town of Palmar Sur, which features a regional airport for easy access as well as serving as a gateway to fishing and nature adventures. Alternatively, you can venture north to the popular restaurants of Ojochal and the tourist activities and beaches of Uvita. Heck, there is even a golf course just 10 minutes away! The home is located on an end lot so that you have no immediate neighbors around most of the property allowing you to take advantage of the valley and mountain views that extend into the distance and provide a fascinating and ever changing vista that is a star attraction for us nature lovers.
