Property Description

Prime Location For A Luxury Estate In An Exclusive Beachside Neighborhood. The view is dynamic as the waves gently roll into the bay below, the surf explodes onto large rock formations, the tropical rainforest touches the sea and the sun sets over the horizon unobstructed year round. Bordered by the beach to the west, a protected rainforest corridor to the north and million dollar homes to the south, you can not find a better location to build your dream home in Costa Rica. For those seeking convenience and luxury in Dominical, this is exactly where it can be found. Homes in the area all perform very well as prime income producing vacation rentals when not in use by their owners. The Solemar Luxury Home Sites Feature Impeccable Infrastructure, home sites were recently graded and feature oversized building pads, an impeccable drainage system, tropical landscaping utilizing native plants that assist with erosion control and an internal road infrastructure that allows large construction equipment to access the properties easily.
