Property Description

SETTING: This home is located in the integrated community of Laguna's de Bar on Costa Rica's South Pacific coast, just ten short minutes from Dominical, with pristine white sandy beaches and an abundance of tropical flora and fauna as well as all essential amenities. Offering fantastic Pacific Ocean and green valley views this property enjoys an exclusive location with refreshing sea breezes. INSIDE: Tanglewood House is a unique tropical style, custom designed residence. With southwestern themed décor throughout, including high-gloss Mexican Saltillo-style floor tiles with detailed borders. Quality fresh finishes of natural stone, medium colored wood and earth tones. The overall design allows plenty of light into the property. The residence has a total living space of 300 sqm /3200-sq.-ft with air conditioning. Recessed lighting with dimmer switches allow you to control the mood, as does the built-in sound system that features speakers in the living room, dining room, master bedroom, and poolside rancho.
