Property Description

Looking for a multi-unit property walking distance to the beach and restaurants? Here it is! This four-unit property is well situated near the football field in the center of the adorable Playa Carrillo. Each building has a lower unit and an upper unit with each apartment having its own bathroom and kitchenette. It is just a 1/2 mile to the beach, an easy walk, and even closer to a couple of local sodas, mini supermarkets and the Argentinian steak house, El Colibri. A decent-sized pool could easily be added between the two buildings to generate more vacation rentals. This property is just looking for the right owner to realize its full income producing potential! For more information please contact nick@coldwellbankersamara.com.
