Property Description

If you are looking for a comfortable 3 BR home that captures the beauty of Costa Rica in complete privacy, look at this one. It is designed to provide a seamless transition from inside to outside so your living space is as cozy or as vast as you want. Just 15 minutes from Dominical's popular beach on a gravel road that is always well maintained, you will have no visible neighbors while still being part of a close community that includes both expats and Ticos. The elevation of almost 1,000 feet ensures that your home will capture ocean breezes during the day and mountain breezes at night. There are three bedrooms, two of which have that splendid view across the pool to the mountains. The two bathrooms each have outdoor showers in garden settings so you will feel all the freedom of being totally au naturel while still enjoying discreet privacy. Taking a warm shower in the rain is the very definition of tropical luxury! The vastness of the view is valley and mountains, but there is a nice peek at the Pacific Ocean in the distance.
