Property Description

Welcome to this stunning property in Concepcion de Tres Rios! If you are looking for a home close to shopping centers, schools and important schools in the area, then this is the perfect place for you. With three bedrooms, this home has everything you need to live comfortably. The master bedroom has a full bathroom, while the two secondary bedrooms have closets and share another full bathroom. In addition, there is a small room adjacent to the garage that can be used as an office, maid's room or storage room, depending on the needs of the new owner. This property also has a garage for two vehicles and two internal garden spaces. The living and dining room is quite comfortable and has gypso ceilings that give it an elegant and modern touch. As for security, this house has an alarm system, cameras and monitoring from an external company (this service is optional although it is very low cost). The property has a lot of 149 square meters and a construction of 131 square meters with a patio of 18 square meters.
