Property Description

This exceptional custom home is a lovingly crafted single-story home in the pristine gated community of Tierra Pacifica. Thoughtful details have been implemented throughout the property and garden, maintaining an open feel surrounded by lush jungle plantings. The home is laid out to allow tropical breezes to flow through all its spaces, providing eco-friendly passive cooling and most importantly, fresh air. Casa La Metafora has a comfortable feel and separates the master and ensuite bath from the two guest bedrooms and bath on the other wing for a total of three bedrooms and two baths. The kitchen pairs beautiful hardwoods with beautiful granite counters and you'll never run out of cabinet space. High ceilings, window treatments and well-planned shade trees around the property help keep the home cool but AC units are in every bedroom when needed. The gardens have been fully planted out with beautiful walking paths and flowers for year round enjoyment.
