Property Description

Welcome to Casa Teca, your Unique Retreat in the Jungle !This charming fully remodeled teak house nestled on 1.25 acre land with a seasonal creek is very unique and peaceful. Located in Pueblo Verde "Green Village" just a short drive to 7 beaches including Playa Negra, Playa Junquillal, Playa Blanca, Playa Avellanas. Very easy to access from Liberia airport 1,5 hour drive and 30 min drive to all conveniences and touristy Tamarindo. The entrance of this community is off the main road, 2 min drive from Paraiso, and this charming house is perfectly nestled at the dead end of the quiet neighborhood....The area is very well known for its numerous great surf breaks but also for being close and far enough from the crowded towns, yet developing at a nice pace, but still empty beaches to walk, shell, and soak in tide pools or get a great surf session!Casa Teca is very unique as we don't find teak houses that much anymore in the area, teak is the only wood that can resist the elements in Guanacaste and requires a moderate maintenance.
